TURNER: Republican Bill Falls Short of the Mark

Congressman Jim Turner, the Ranking Member of the House Select Committee on Homeland Security, made the following statement in response to the House Republican legislation to be introduced next week:

“The Senate bill was crafted in a bipartisan manner and covers the full range of the 9/11 Commission recommendations. Unfortunately, the House Republican bill, which was crafted without any bipartisan consultations, falls far short of the mark. We will take every opportunity to improve this legislation to ensure that it does justice to the vital work of the 9/11 Commission.”
